

Return, O Lord

Psalm 6

Mark Shipp

Konstantin Zhigulin

1

1. Lord, do not re - buke in an - ger, and do not your wrath pro - long;
2. I am wea - ry from my sigh - ing and my bed dis - solves in tears,

5

Mer - cy, Lord, for I am faint - ing; my cry goes up: "How long?"
for my eye grows weak with sor - row; my com - fort dis - ap - pears.

9

Turn to me, O Lord, de - liv - er; turn in faith - ful - ness and save.
Leave me, all who work in - jus - tice, for the Lord, in my de - spair,

13

How can I in death re - mem - ber and who can praise has re - ceived my sup - pli - ca - tion and he has heard

(1.) who can praise you from the
(2.) he has heard my hum - ble

(1.) who can praise you from the
(2.) he has heard my hum - ble

Return, O Lord

16 grave? prayer. Re - turn, O Lord, res - cue my soul;

you from the grave? O Lord, res - cue my soul;
my hum - ble prayer. Re - turn, O Lord, res - cue my grave? prayer. O Lord, res - cue my soul;

20 save me be - cause of your lov - ing - kind - ness. Re - turn, O Lord,

save me O God. O Lord, soul, me O God. Re - turn, O Lord,

save me O God. O Lord,

23 res - cue my soul; save me be - cause of your love.

res - cue my soul; save me be - cause of your love.
res - cue my soul be - cause of your love.

res - cue my soul; save me be - cause of your love.